

Fort Madison Health Center Alzheimer's Fund Raising 2008

Raising money for the yearly Alzheimer's Memory Walk. Deb and George battle over the dog Banardo. Banardo is one of many items for sale in the Silent Auction.

Deb Bruno, won the bid and is now the proud owner of the dog Banardo.

Mary Rose has had a special interest in the Jar getting full, and puts coins in for staff. Here Deb Bruno allowed Mary to dump her bank into the Memory Walk Jar.

Deena Tanedo from therapy, makes a donation to the fundraiser for books, and also purchases a FMHC t-shirt. She is going to send the books and shirt to her family in the Philippines. She wants to show her family where she works.

Phil helping Billie donate her Bingo dimes she had won.

As of September 16, FMHC has raised over $2,200.
