

The naval ship USS LST-325 was anchored on the riverfront in Fort Madison recently. Residents that were interested in visiting were given the opportunity to go aboard and tour the vessel.

This retired LST (Landing Ship, Tank) 325 was constructed in 1942 and is one of the ships used in World War II to transport troops on D-Day (June 6, 1944).

